PROGRAM: A LIFE WELL LIVED, PRESENTER AND AUTHOR, EVELYN LATORRE

We are fortunate to have Evelyn La Torre a DKG member of Alpha Omega Chapter in Area III and Chair of the Global Awareness Committee speak to us and share her life experiences and published books. She grew up in Montana until the age of 16 when she moved to California.

Evelyn has her ED.D. Professionally she was a bilingual school psychologist and school administrator for 32 years.

Evelyn was a Peace Corps volunteer in the 1960s. She has lived in and traveled to over 100 countries. She also has two published books. Her Peace Corps memoir is titled Between Inca Walls. In that book she tells of falling in love. Her second book, Love in Any Language, is a memoir of a cross-cultural marriage. Both books have been award winners.

Evelyn has a lot to share with us about living in other cultures which helps us learn a lot about our own culture.

Lunch will include a sandwich, salad, chips, cookie, soda or water
